GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

ABA WRITING COMPETITION

The Medicine and Law Committee of the Tort and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association is sponsoring a writing competition for law students. The winner will receive a $1,000.00 cash prize.

Papers will be considered on any topic pertaining to medicine and law, and must be approximately three thousand words in length. All students at ABA-accredited law schools are eligible. Manuscripts that have been accepted for publication are ineligible. Submissions must be the work of one person. Entries will be judged on originality, analysis, composition, and style. The winning paper will be considered for publication in the Section's Journal, The Tort & Insurance Law Journal.

Law students wishing to enter the writing competition should submit their papers to: John V. Henry, 29th Floor, 220 East 42nd Street, New York, NY 10017. For purposes of anonymity, the contestant's name should not appear on the manuscript; each paper should be accompanied by a cover letter that includes the student's name and school mailing address. Each submission will be acknowledged in writing. Entries must be postmarked no later than May 1, 1987. The winner will be announced at the American Bar Association Annual Meeting in San Francisco during August 6 - 13, 1987.

N.L.F. LEGAL ESSAY CONTEST

The National Legal Foundation of Virginia Beach, Virginia is pleased to announce its' Third Annual Legal Essay Contest for law students. The topic is:

"Parental Rights in Public, Private and Home Education: An Historical Analysis of State and National Constitutional Guarantees, Including the First, Ninth and Tenth Amendments and the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution."

The actual essay must be submitted and postmarked by May 1, 1987. First Place will be awarded $5,000.00; Second Place will be awarded $3,000.00; Third Place will be awarded $2,500.00.

Application blanks may be obtained from Susan Shepard in the Dean's Office.

Staff meetings will be announced. Please contact Mitch Jackman (213) 736-1115 with questions or problems.

VITA COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT

If you are interested in the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program to aid low income individuals with their income tax preparation, contact Mitch Jackman at the Loyola Reporter office (736-1115), or see an Evening SBA representative.

COUNSELING PROGRAM

Free, on-campus counseling services are once again available as of January 12, 1987. If the semester break has left you with new or recurring concerns regarding school, relationships, self-esteem, family issues, etc., please call Stephanie Tainsky for an appointment at 736-1122. If the telephone answering machine picks up your call, please leave your name & number. Ms Tainsky has sole access to the machine; confidentiality will be maintained.

RESEARCH ASSISTANTS NEEDED FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROJECT

The Los Angeles Ccounty Bar and Loyola Law School are jointly sponsoring a comprehensive directory of alternative dispute resolution resources in Los Angeles County. Professor Ruel Walker needs two research assistants to work on assembling this information and writing the directory. The job will involve researching various ADR resources and interviewing staff persons. At least one of the research assistants needs to have computer skill for data storage and retrieval. Please contact Professor Walker if you are interested.

WOMEN'S UNION MEETING

Welcome Back & Let's Get Started Women's Union General Meeting, Wednesday January 14 at noon and 5:00 p.m. in Room 2.

Members: Please check your student mailboxes for an update newsletter and ballot to vote on our organization's name. During the meeting, we will be setting up committees for various projects for this semester and getting volunteers for the Board of Directors for the Regional Conference on Women and The Law. All are welcome to attend: students, staff, faculty, men and women!

BOOKSTORE HOURS:

The bookstore hours for Spring Rush are 10 a.m. - 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, until February 6, 1987. Regular hours are 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 11 to 3 on Fridays. The deadline for refunds on course materials for the Spring semester is January 23, 1987. Please do not mark in book, and have your receipt ready. Note: study aids are not refundable or exchangeable.

WORK STUDY POSITIONS AVAILABLE:

The Law Library needs student workers. See Karen Verdugo in the library, or apply at the public services desk.

The Admissions Office is looking for a work study student. Please see Cecilia Morris or Carmen Ramirez if interested.

FINANCIAL AID OFFICE

APPLYING FOR FINANCIAL AID/SCHOLARSHIPS FOR 1987-'88:

The California Student Aid commission is late distributing SAAC forms this year. Because of this delay, the '87-'88 financial aid application deadlines listed in the Spring '87 registration pamphlet are being rescheduled. Further details will be published in next week's Bulletin.

NATIONAL DIRECT STUDENT LOANS (NDSL):

NDSL promissory notes for Spring semester will be available for students on Monday, January 26 and Tuesday, January 27 from 10:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

STUDENT WORKER CONTRACTS:

Any student who is currently working or planning to work on campus must have a valid Spring semester work contract. If you have not notified our office of your working status, you must do so immediately. New contracts will be available on Tuesday, January 20.
